

Three RTO officials suspended over irregularities in issuance of driving licences

MM BUREAU
New Delhi/September 04
 The Delhi government has suspended three motor licensing officers (MLOs) for "irregularities" in the issuance of driving licences, transport officials said Thursday.

The action came after the state transport department found an "abnormal rise" in the issuance of driving licences from the regional transport offices (RTOs) in New Delhi (IP depot), Vasant Vihar and Surajmal Vihar. The MLOs of these three RTOs were suspended on Wednesday by chief secretary Vijay Dev.

"We conducted inspections at all 10 RTOs in Delhi after receiving a few complaints, one of which was taken cognisance of by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI). It was found that these three RTOs, which in previous times issued the lowest number of driving licences, among all the zonal offices, suddenly showed a spike during the unlock period which began from June 8. The special commission (transport) KK Dahiya said.

Apart from colluding with touts, it was found that over 1,000 driving licences were issued from these RTOs over the past two months without conducting the mandatory video recording of the driving test given by applicants, the transport department said.

These three RTOs are among the five RTOs in Delhi which do not have an automated test track for applicants seeking a permanent driving licence.

RTOs in Sarai Kale Khan, Burari, Mayap Vihar, Wazirpur and Vishwas Nagar have automated test tracks by the end of the year and no manual driving tests shall be allowed thereafter.

He further stated that manual intervention, Dahiya said the remaining five RTOs will have automated test tracks by the end of the year and no manual driving tests shall be allowed thereafter.

He further stated that prima facie, the investigation also shows that the SARATHI software, developed and maintained by the National Informatics Centre (NIC), could have been tampered with by certain "lower rung officials".

The Delhi government has now also written to the NIC Director general, seeking a vigilance inquiry into the matter.

"It has come to our notice that there were some gaps in the SARATHI software and there is a likelihood that the shortcomings in the software were shared with touts and applications of other zones were entertained at these places without any pin code restrictions..."

You are, therefore, requested to order a vigilance inquiry to ascertain whether the lapses in the software were genuine errors or the result of tampering by any of the NIC developers. Accountability should be fixed for this major lapse in the system," read the letter sent to NIC by the state transport department. The government has also urged the NIC to "replace" all 10 NIC officials at its RTOs with new staffers in order to rule out the possibility of "connivance of any official at any level" and also to facilitate a fair inquiry.

Delhi man creates fake social media profiles of a woman to harass her; arrested

 Suspecting a 21-year-old woman to be behind the break-up of his friendship with her older sister who lives in south Delhi's Neb Darai, a university student created multiple fake social media profiles in her name and began using them to share obscene messages, the Delhi Police said. They arrested the student on Wednesday. Since the woman's photographs and mobile phone number were shared on these fake social media profiles, she was inundated with phone calls from strangers who would pass vulgar comments and seek sexual favours of her. Atul Kumar Thakur, the deputy commissioner of police (south), said that when the woman complained on Wednesday, they first proceeded to contact the two social media companies, Facebook and Instagram, to request them to take down the profiles. Meanwhile, the police registered a case of stalking, insulting the modesty of a woman and criminal intimidation at Neb Sarai police station. Boy jumps off 4th floor house in Delhi's Chirag Dilli after failing to pay for neighbour's damaged iPhone

MM BUREAU
New Delhi/September 04
 A 16-year-old boy suffered multiple injuries when he jumped off his fourth-floor house in New Delhi's Chirag Dilli on Thursday morning. His father and his mother were allegedly humiliated and tortured for being unable to pay for the damage the former caused to an iPhone of a neighbour, police said on Friday. The neighbour, Honey Singh, allegedly confined the father and son wrongfully and also asked the teenager to work as a "servant" to compensate for the damage. "The man who tortured and humiliated the teenager, forcing him to attempt the extreme step, is absconding. Our teams are looking for him," said deputy police commissioner of Anil Kumar Thakur. He added the police received a call at 3.40 pm on Thursday from a hospital regarding the boy who jumped off. "A police team... met the boy in a hospital and recorded his statement," Thakur said. He said they have registered a case against Singh under Indian Penal Code (IPC) sections relating to kidnapping, hurt, wrongful restraint, and cruelty and under the Juvenile Justice Act. "A daily diary entry has also been lodged under Section 109 of IPC for the suicide attempt. The injured teenager is undergoing treatment at the hospital." The teenager was going to his father's shop on a bicycle with his friend when he lost balance and hit a pole-like and Singh's iPhone fell and was damaged as a result of the collision.

Misbehaviour with couple over stopping from drinking

MM BUREAU
New Delhi/September 04
 A video purportedly showing two men in a car... at least one of whom is seen with a glass of liquor in his hand... abusing and threatening a couple in west Delhi's Paschim Vihar was widely shared on social media, prompting the police to arrest the two suspects and seize their vehicle. The widely-circulated video also led Delhi deputy chief minister Manish Sisodia on Friday afternoon to direct the state excise department to crack down on cases of consumption of liquor in public places. Delhi Police is yet to share the circumstances of the incident or the details of the arrested suspects. But a 45-second video shot by the victim couple and shared on social media showed one of the men holding a plastic glass with liquor in his hand out of their car's front seat of the car, while the other man is at the wheel. The incident had occurred at around 11.15pm on Wednesday. The couple can be seen referring to their perpetrators' drunk driving and trying to record the car's number, while the man holding the liquor glass is hurling abuses at them. The video showed one of the men getting out of their car and leaning on the window of the victim's vehicle. Later, one of the victims posted the small clip on social media with a caption that described how the duo was drinking openly on the road.
