Background and Introduction

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) revised the Code of Corporate Governance for listed companies significantly to bring it in line with the Companies Act 2013. SEBI has mandated the need for a succession policy and planning as key function of the Board of Directors. Regulation 17(4) of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements), Regulations, 2015 require the Company to put in place Policy on Succession planning for the Board and Senior Management and display the same on the website of the Company.

The Company recognizes the importance of the process to Succession Planning to provide for continuity in the smooth functioning of the organization. It is an essential function of the Board for survival, growth of the organization and to ensure its continued effective performance through leadership continuity.

There are certain positions in the Company that are key to Company's current and future growth. It is, therefore, important that these positions are manned by skilled and best possible incumbents and those positions whenever fall vacant are filled well in time to avoid any leadership gaps. The Company has therefore put in place a Policy on Succession Planning for the Board and Senior Management (hereinafter called the "Policy").

DEFINITIONS

- I. "Nomination and Remuneration Committee" or "Committee" means the Committee of the Board constituted/re-constituted, from time to time, under the provisions of Regulation 19 of the LODR Regulations, 2015 read with Section 178 of the Companies Act, 2013, as in force.
- II. "Board of Directors" or "Board" means the Board of Directors of Alps Industries Limited as constituted/re-constituted, from time to time.
- III. "Company" means Alps Industries Limited.
- IV. "Policy" or "this Policy" means Succession Policy.
- V. "Senior Management" mean personnel of the Company who are members of its core management team excluding Board of Directors. Normally, this would comprise all members of management one level below the executive directors, including all functional heads.

The Company recognizes the below benefits of having in place the visible Succession Plan:

- It signals to their employees that company is focused on their long-term future by protecting the organization from the havoc that unwelcome departures can create.

- It assures clients and customers and helps preserve their confidence in the organization because they know that it will continue to provide products and/or services without interruption.
- It helps focus people's attention on the competencies they need to do an excellent job.
- It puts more focus on developing talent from within the organization. People will know that with targeted education, training, and coaching, they could move into key positions. This boosts overall motivation, morale, and satisfaction in the organization.

The Objective of this policy is:

- To ensure the Group is prepared with a plan to support operation and service continuity when the Board, KMP's and Senior Management Personnel or key business leader leave their positions;
- To prepare a supply of suitably qualified and motivated employees for higher roles and responsibilities;
- To identify and nominate suitable candidates for the Board's approval to fill the vacancies which arises in the Board of the Company from time to time;
- To develop career paths for employees which will facilitate the company's ability to recruit and retain top-performing or high talent employees;
- To deliver a message to the company employees that they are valuable; and to ensure the systematic and long-term development of individuals in the senior management level to replace when the need arises due to deaths, disabilities, retirements, and other unexpected occurrence.
